

SUNSHINE PERIOD

JANE IMHOLTE
P.O. BOX 585
BETHEL, AK 99559

May 14, 2003

Michael Powell, Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street SW
Washington, D.C. 20544

Confirmed

JUN 05 2003

Dear Mr. Powell,

Distribution Center

I am writing to remind the members of the Federal Communications Commission that you are responsible for ensuring that the media "serve the public interest." To that end, I am increasingly concerned that media consolidation benefits corporations at the expense of the public interest. I am particularly troubled by the current proposals to modify media regulations that will put more and more media in the hands of fewer corporations.

Even if a corporate media monopoly survived constitutional scrutiny under the First Amendment, there is no "freedom of the press" when the press is entirely controlled by corporate interests. Even here in little old Bethel, AK (pop. 5,000) where I landed 10 months ago to work at law office, we have the benefit of competing newspapers. It's a good thing, too: one paper is primarily held by the Calista Corporation, which is currently under fire for corruption and mismanagement. The other paper is the only source of news about the Corporation.

Doomsday predictions are usually the province of fanatics. However, I do fear for the future of free thought, free speech and free press if the FCC continues to deregulate media. I think of how radio was used by the rebel forces in Rwanda to inculcate terror and hatred. I think of China's draconian censorship of the Internet and the press. I think of the formerly state-run media in Iraq. Exclusive control of media outlets never promotes diversity of thought or freedom of speech, regardless of whether the regime is corporate or military.

The public interest here lies in the further diversification of and access to a wide spectrum of media. Please do not further erode what little remains to safeguard the media from complete corporate control.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Jane Imholte', with a stylized, somewhat abstract flourish at the end.

Jane Imholte
Attorney-at-Law

cc. Kathleen Abernathy, Commissioner
Michael Copps, Commissioner
Kevin Martin, Commissioner
Jonathon Adelstein, Commissioner

IMHOLTE
P.O. Box 585
Bethel, AK 99559

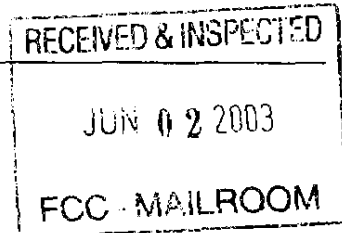

Kathleen Abernathy, Commissioner
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street SW
Washington, D.C. 20544

02-277

SUNSHINE PERIOD

JANE IMHOLTE
P.O. BOX 585
BETHEL, AK 99559

May 14, 2003

Michael Powell, Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street SW
Washington, D.C. 20544

Confirmed

JUN 05 2003

Dear Mr. Powell,

Distribution Center

I am writing to remind the members of the Federal Communications Commission that you are responsible for ensuring that the media "serve the public interest." To that end, I am increasingly concerned that media consolidation benefits corporations at the expense of the public interest. I am particularly troubled by the current proposals to modify media regulations that will put more and more media in the hands of fewer corporations.

Even if a corporate media monopoly survived constitutional scrutiny under the First Amendment, there is no "freedom of the press" when the press is entirely controlled by corporate interests. Even here in little old Bethel, AK (pop. 5,000) where I landed 10 months ago to work at law office, we have the benefit of competing newspapers. It's a good thing, too: one paper is primarily held by the Calista Corporation, which is currently under fire for corruption and mismanagement. The other paper is the only source of news about the Corporation.

Doomsday predictions are usually the province of fanatics. However, I do fear for the future of free thought, free speech and free press if the FCC continues to deregulate media. I think of how radio was used by the rebel forces in Rwanda to inculcate terror and hatred. I think of China's draconian censorship of the Internet and the press. I think of the formerly state-run media in Iraq. Exclusive control of media outlets never promotes diversity of thought or freedom of speech, regardless of whether the regime is corporate or military.

The public interest here lies in the further diversification of and access to a wide

No. of Copies sent _____ LHA:ADG/DC

spectrum of media. Please do not further erode what little remains to safeguard the media from complete corporate control.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Jane Imholte', with a stylized, cursive script.

Jane Imholte
Attorney-at-Law

cc. Kathleen Abernathy, Commissioner
Michael Copps, Commissioner
Kevin Martin, Commissioner
Jonathon Adelstein, Commissioner

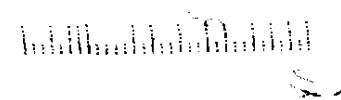

IMHOLTE
P.O. Box 585
Bethel, AK 99559

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

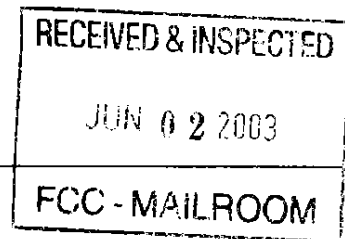

JUN 6 2 2003

FCC - MAILROOM

Michael Copps, Commissioner
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street SW
Washington, D.C. 20544

JANE IMHOLTE
P.O. BOX 585
BETHEL, AK 99559

May 14, 2003

Michael Powell, Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street SW
Washington, D.C. 20544

Confirmed

JUN 05 2003

Distribution Center

Dear Mr. Powell,

I am writing to remind the members of the Federal Communications Commission that you are responsible for ensuring that the media "serve the public interest." To that end, I am increasingly concerned that media consolidation benefits corporations at the expense of the public interest. I am particularly troubled by the current proposals to modify media regulations that will put more and more media in the hands of fewer corporations.

Even if a corporate media monopoly survived constitutional scrutiny under the First Amendment, there is no "freedom of the press" when the press is entirely controlled by corporate interests. Even here in little old Bethel, AK (pop. 5,000) where I landed 10 months ago to work at law office, we have the benefit of competing newspapers. It's a good thing, too: one paper is primarily held by the Calista Corporation, which is currently under fire for corruption and mismanagement. The other paper is the only source of news about the Corporation.

Doomsday predictions are usually the province of fanatics. However, I do fear for the future of free thought, free speech and free press if the FCC continues to deregulate media. I think of how radio was used by the rebel forces in Rwanda to inculcate terror and hatred. I think of China's draconian censorship of the Internet and the press. I think of the formerly state-run media in Iraq. Exclusive control of media outlets never promotes diversity of thought or freedom of speech, regardless of whether the regime is corporate or military.

The public interest here lies in the further diversification of and access to a wide

No. of Copies rec'd _____
Date Rec'd _____

spectrum of media. Please do not further erode what little remains to safeguard the media from complete corporate control.

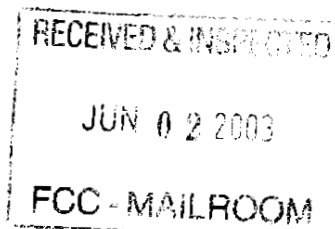

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Jane Imholte', with a stylized, somewhat abstract flourish at the end.

Jane Imholte
Attorney-at-Law

cc. Kathleen Abernathy, Commissioner
Michael Copps, Commissioner
Kevin Martin, Commissioner
Jonathon Adelstein, Commissioner

IMHOLTE
P.O. Box 585
Bethel, AK 99559

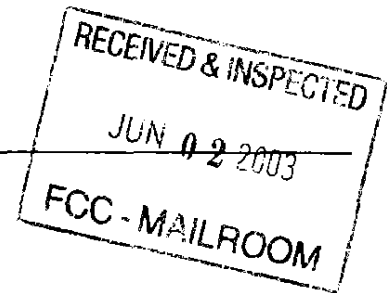

Jonathon Adelstein, Commissioner
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street SW
Washington, D.C. 20544

02-277

SUNSHINE PERIOD

JANE IMHOLTE
P.O. BOX 585
BETHEL, AK 99559

May 14, 2003

Michael Powell, Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street SW
Washington, D.C. 20544

Confirmed

JUN 05 2003

Distribution Center

Dear Mr. Powell,

I am writing to remind the members of the Federal Communications Commission that you are responsible for ensuring that the media "serve the public interest." To that end, I am increasingly concerned that media consolidation benefits corporations at the expense of the public interest. I am particularly troubled by the current proposals to modify media regulations that will put more and more media in the hands of fewer corporations.

Even if a corporate media monopoly survived constitutional scrutiny under the First Amendment, there is no "freedom of the press" when the press is entirely controlled by corporate interests. Even here in little old Bethel, AK (pop. 5,000) where I landed 10 months ago to work at law office, we have the benefit of competing newspapers. It's a good thing, too: one paper is primarily held by the Calista Corporation, which is currently under fire for corruption and mismanagement. The other paper is the only source of news about the Corporation.

Doomsday predictions are usually the province of fanatics. However, I do fear for the future of free thought, free speech and free press if the FCC continues to deregulate media. I think of how radio was used by the rebel forces in Rwanda to inculcate terror and hatred. I think of China's draconian censorship of the Internet and the press. I think of the formerly state-run media in Iraq. Exclusive control of media outlets never promotes diversity of thought or freedom of speech, regardless of whether the regime is corporate or military.

The public interest here lies in the further diversification of and access to a wide spectrum of media. Please do not further erode what little remains to safeguard the media from complete corporate control.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Jane Imholte', with a stylized, cursive script.

Jane Imholte
Attorney-at-Law

cc. Kathleen Abernathy, Commissioner
Michael Copps, Commissioner
Kevin Martin, Commissioner
Jonathon Adelstein, Commissioner

IMHOLTE
P.O. Box 585
Bethel, AK 99559

Kevin Martin, Commissioner
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street SW
Washington, D.C. 20544

02-277

SUNSHINE PERIOD

JANE IMHOLTE
P.O. BOX 585
BETHEL, AK 99559

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

JUN 02 2003

FCC - MAILROOM

May 14, 2003

Michael Powell, Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street SW
Washington, D.C. 20544

Confirmed

JUN 05 2003

Distribution Center

Dear Mr. Powell,

I am writing to remind the members of the Federal Communications Commission that you are responsible for ensuring that the media "serve the public interest." To that end, I am increasingly concerned that media consolidation benefits corporations at the expense of the public interest. I am particularly troubled by the current proposals to modify media regulations that will put more and more media in the hands of fewer corporations.

Even if a corporate media monopoly survived constitutional scrutiny under the First Amendment, there is no "freedom of the press" when the press is entirely controlled by corporate interests. Even here in little old Bethel, AK (pop. 5,000) where I landed 10 months ago to work at law office, we have the benefit of competing newspapers. It's a good thing, too: one paper is primarily held by the Calista Corporation, which is currently under fire for corruption and mismanagement. The other paper is the only source of news about the Corporation.

Doomsday predictions are usually the province of fanatics. However, I do fear for the future of free thought, free speech and free press if the FCC continues to deregulate media. I think of how radio was used by the rebel forces in Rwanda to inculcate terror and hatred. I think of China's draconian censorship of the Internet and the press. I think of the formerly state-run media in Iraq. Exclusive control of media outlets never promotes diversity of thought or freedom of speech, regardless of whether the regime is corporate or military.

The public interest here lies in the further diversification of and access to a wide spectrum of media. Please do not further erode what little remains to safeguard the media from complete corporate control.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Jane Imholte', with a stylized, cursive script.

Jane Imholte
Attorney-at-Law

cc. Kathleen Abernathy, Commissioner
Michael Copps, Commissioner
Kevin Martin, Commissioner
Jonathon Adelstein, Commissioner

IMHOLTE
P.O. Box 585
Bethel, AK 99559

Michael Powell, Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street SW
Washington, D.C. 20544

